What is antisocial behaviour?

Antisocial behaviour (ASB) is conduct that has caused, or is likely to cause, harassment, alarm or distress

Reporting ASB

If it's happening right now, report to Devon & Cornwall Police by calling 999 if it's an emergency. If it's not urgent call 101, visit devon-cornwall.police.uk, or use the Police.UK smartphone app. You can also report 100% anonymously to CrimeStoppers on 0800 555111 or visit crimestoppers-uk.org

Examples are harassment, intimidation, misuse of fireworks, drugs and drinking in the street, vandalism, graffitiing, or begging

You can also report antisocial behaviour to your local council

Examples are noise nuisance, fly-tipping, civil parking issues or littering
