DISCIPLINARY POLICY

INTRODUCTION

1 This policy is based on and complies with the 2015 ACAS Code of Practice. https://www.acas.org.uk/acas-code-of-practice-on-disciplinary-and-grievance-procedures

It also takes account of the ACAS guide on discipline and grievances at work. https://www.acas.org.uk/disciplinary-and-grievance-procedures .

The policy is designed to help Woodbury Parish Council ("the Council") employees improve unsatisfactory conduct and performance in their job. Wherever possible, the Council will try to resolve its concerns about employees' behaviour informally, without starting the formal procedure set out below.

2 The policy will be applied fairly, consistently and in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.

3 This policy confirms:

a) informal coaching and supervision will be considered, where appropriate, to improve conduct and/or attendance;

b) the Council will fully investigate the facts of each case;

c) the Council recognises that misconduct and unsatisfactory work performance are different issues.

The disciplinary policy will also apply to work performance issues to ensure that all alleged instances of employees' underperformance are dealt with fairly and in a way that is consistent with required standards. However, the disciplinary policy will only be used when performance management proves ineffective;

d) employees will be informed in writing about the nature of the complaint against them and given the opportunity to state their case;

e) employees will be provided, where appropriate, with written copies of evidence and relevant witness statements in advance of a disciplinary hearing;

f) employees may be accompanied or represented by a companion - a workplace colleague, a trade union representative or a trade union official - at any investigatory, disciplinary or appeal meeting.

The companion is permitted to address such meetings, to put the employee's case and confer with the employee. The companion cannot answer questions put to the employee, address the meeting against the employee's wishes or prevent the employee from explaining his/her case;

g) the Council will give employees reasonable notice of any meetings in this procedure. The employee must make all reasonable efforts to attend. Failure to attend any meeting may result in it going ahead and a decision being taken. An employee who does not attend a meeting will be given the opportunity to be represented and to make written submissions;

h) if the employee's companion is not available for the proposed date of the meeting, the employee can request a postponement and can propose an alternative date that is within five working days of the original meeting date unless it is unreasonable not to propose a later date;

i) any changes to specified time limits in the Council's procedure must be agreed by the employee and the Council;

j) information about an employee's disciplinary matter will be restricted to those involved in the disciplinary process. A record of the reason for disciplinary action and the action taken by the Council is confidential to the employee. The employee's disciplinary records will be held by the Council in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR);

k) audio or video recordings of the proceedings at any stage of the disciplinary procedure are prohibited, unless agreed by all affected parties as a reasonable adjustment that takes account of an employee's medical condition;

l) employees have the right to appeal against any disciplinary decision. The appeal decision is final if an employee who is already subject to the Council's disciplinary procedure raises a grievance, the grievance will normally be heard after the completion of the disciplinary procedure;

m) disciplinary action taken by the Council can include a written warning, final written warning or dismissal;

n) this procedure may be implemented at any stage if the employee's alleged misconduct warrants this;

o) except for gross misconduct when an employee may be dismissed without notice, the Council will not dismiss an employee on the first occasion that it decides there has been misconduct;

p) if an employee is suspended following allegations of misconduct, it will be on full pay and only for such time as is necessary. Suspension is not a disciplinary sanction. The Council will write to the employee to confirm any period of suspension and the reasons for it; and

q) the Council may consider mediation at any stage of the disciplinary procedure where appropriate (for example where there have been communication breakdowns or allegations of bullying or harassment). Mediation is a dispute resolution process that requires the consent of affected parties.

Examples of misconduct

4a Misconduct is employee behaviour that can lead to the employer taking disciplinary action. The following list contains some examples of misconduct (this list is not exhaustive):

- unauthorised absence
- poor timekeeping
- misuse of the Council's resources and facilities including telephone, email and internet
- inappropriate behaviour
- refusal to follow reasonable instructions
- breach of health and safety rules.

Examples of gross misconduct

4b Gross misconduct is misconduct that is so serious that it is likely to lead to dismissal without notice. The following list contains some examples of gross misconduct (this list is not exhaustive):

- bullying, discrimination and harassment
- incapacity at work because of alcohol or drugs
- violent behaviour
- fraud or theft
- gross negligence
- gross insubordination
- serious breach of the Council policies and procedures, e.g. Health and Safety policy, Equality and Diversity policy, Data Protection policy and any policies regarding the use of information technology
- serious and deliberate damage to property
- use of the internet or email to access pornographic, obscene or offensive material
- disclosure of confidential information.

Suspension

4c If allegations of gross misconduct or serious misconduct are made, the Council may suspend the employee while further investigations are carried out. Suspension will be on full pay. Suspension does not imply any determination of guilt or innocence, as it is merely a measure to enable further investigation. While on suspension, the employee is required to be available during normal hours of work in the event that the Council needs to make contact. The employee must not contact or attempt to contact or influence anyone connected with the investigation in any way or to discuss this matter with any other employee or Councillor. The employee must not attend work. The Council will make arrangements for the employee to access any information or documents required to respond to any allegations.

Examples of unsatisfactory work performance

5 Unsatisfactory work performance which is continuous and not resolved by training or a working plan could lead to the employer taking disciplinary action. The following list contains some examples of unsatisfactory work performance (this list is not exhaustive):

- inadequate application of office procedures
- inadequate IT skills
- unsatisfactory management of staff
- unsatisfactory communication skills.

General Principles

6.1 This procedure is not a substitute for good management practices and should only be invoked when initial attempts to improve conduct have been made following discussions between the employee and their manager or Council. However, where there has been a serious first-time breach of disciplinary rules or gross misconduct the formal procedure should be actioned immediately.

6.2 No disciplinary action will be taken against an employee until the circumstances have been fully investigated.

6.3 At every stage in the procedure the employee will be advised of the nature of the complaint against him or her and will be given the opportunity to state his or her case before any decision is made.

6.4 The employee has the right to be represented at disciplinary hearings and appeals.

6.5 In all instances of alleged misconduct the employee will be given at least 5 working days' notice of the requirement to attend a hearing or appeal. Should the employee fail to attend without an acceptable reason, then the Chairman of the hearing or appeal may proceed in the employee's absence.

6.6 Any disciplinary action taken will depend on the nature of the offence, the past recorded behaviour of the employee concerned, the consequence to the Council of the offence and any explanation presented by the employee.

6.7 Employees' have the right to appeal against any disciplinary warnings and dismissal.

Roles and Responsibilities

7.1 Where a minor disciplinary issue arises with staff, the Parish Clerk will normally consider the matter and will resolve it if they can without triggering the formal procedure.

7.2 Allegations of more serious misconduct or where a previous warning has been given but the required improvement has not been made, the Parish Clerk will then refer it to the Council and an independent investigator will be appointed.

If the misconduct relates to the Parish Clerk this should be referred directly to the Council.

An independent Councillor will be nominated as the Investigator but if the Council considers that there are no Councillors who are independent, it will appoint someone outside the Council and advice will be sort from Devon Association of Local Clerks.

The Informal Procedure: Informal Advice & Guidance

8.1 Where a minor breach of acceptable/established standards of conduct occurs which does not justify formal disciplinary action, the Parish Clerk will advise the employee concerned of the conduct or standard expected in the future. In many cases this will provide sufficient encouragement for the employee not to commit further acts of misconduct.

8.2 The employee will be offered guidance, support and where appropriate additional training to achieve the necessary standards. Representation will not normally be appropriate. The Parish Clerk / Investigator should make a note of such informal advice and guidance and should set out in writing the required improvements and standards of conduct that are expected in the future. Records of informal advice/counselling should be kept on employee's personal files. However, the formal procedure will apply when:

- previous informal advice or warnings have proved ineffective;
- the allegation is of a serious nature;
- a number of minor allegations are made which taken together constitute a serious breach of discipline.

Disciplinary investigation

A formal disciplinary investigation may sometimes be required to establish the facts and whether there is a disciplinary case to answer.

9.1 The Council will decide if a formal disciplinary investigation is required and will appoint an Investigator who will be responsible for undertaking a fact-finding exercise to collect all relevant information. The Council may agree to delegate the matter to the Staffing, Finance & Policy Committee for onward recommendations to be made to either the Council.

9.2 The Investigator will be appointed as soon as possible after the allegations have been made. The Council will inform the Investigator of the terms of reference of the investigation. The terms of reference should specify:

- the allegations or events that the investigation is required to examine;
- whether a recommendation is required;
- how the findings should be presented. For example, an investigator will often be required to present the findings in the form of a written report; and
- who the findings should be reported to and who to contact for further direction if unexpected issues arise or advice is needed.

9.3 The Investigator will be asked to submit their findings within 20 working days of appointment where possible. In cases of alleged unsatisfactory performance or of allegations of minor misconduct, the appointment of an investigator may not be necessary, and the Council may decide to commence disciplinary proceedings at the next stage - the disciplinary meeting.

9.4 The employee will be notified in writing of the alleged misconduct and details of the person undertaking the investigation.

9.5 The employee may be asked to meet the Investigator as part of the disciplinary investigation. The employee will be given sufficient notice of the meeting with the Investigator so that he/she has reasonable time to prepare for it. The letter will explain the investigatory process and that the meeting is part of that process. The employee will be provided with a copy of the Council's disciplinary procedure. The Council will also inform the employee that when he/she meets with the Investigator, he/she will have the opportunity to comment on the allegations of misconduct.

9.6 Employees may be accompanied or represented by a workplace colleague, a trade union representative, or a trade union official at any investigatory meeting. If there are other persons (e.g. employees, Councillors, members of the public or the Council's contractors) who can provide relevant information, the Investigator should try to obtain it from them in advance of the meeting with the employee.

9.7 The Investigator has no authority to take disciplinary action. His/her role is to establish the facts of the case as quickly as possible and prepare a report that recommends whether or not disciplinary action should be considered under the policy.

The Investigator's report will contain his/her recommendations and the findings on which they were based. He/she will recommend either:

- the employee has no case to answer and there should be no further action under the Council's disciplinary procedure;
- the matter is not serious enough to justify further use of the disciplinary procedure and can be dealt with informally; or
- the employee has a case to answer and a formal hearing should be convened under the Council's disciplinary procedure.

9.8 The Investigator will submit the report which will recommend whether further action will be taken. If the Council/Staffing, Finance & Policy Committee decides that it will not take disciplinary action, it may consider whether mediation would be appropriate in the circumstances.

The disciplinary meeting

If the Council or Staffing, Finance & Policy Committee decides that there is a case to answer, the Committee will formally hear the allegations.

10.1 The Committee will appoint a Chairman from one of its members.

10.2 The Investigator shall not sit on the Committee. No Councillor with direct involvement in the matter shall be appointed to the Committee. The employee will be invited, in writing, to attend a disciplinary meeting. The Committee's letter will confirm the following:

- the names of its Chairman and other members;
- details of the alleged misconduct, its possible consequences and the employee's statutory right to be accompanied at the meeting;

- a copy of the information provided to the Committee which may include the investigation report, supporting evidence and a copy of the Council's disciplinary procedure;
- the time and place for the meeting. The employee will be given reasonable notice of the hearing so that he /she has sufficient time to prepare for it;
- that witnesses may attend on the employee's and the Council's behalf and that both parties should inform each other of their witnesses' names at least two working days before the meeting; and
- that the employee may be accompanied by a companion - a workplace colleague, a trade union representative or a trade union official.

The purpose of the disciplinary meeting hearing is for the allegations to be put to the employee and then for the employee to give their perspective. It will be conducted as follows:

a) the Chairman will introduce the members of the Committee to the employee and explain the arrangements for the hearing;
b) the Chairman will set out the allegations and invite the Investigator to present the findings of the investigation report (if there has been a previous investigation);
c) the Chairman will invite the employee to present their account;
d) the employee (or the companion) will set out his/her case and present evidence (including any witnesses and/or witness statements);
e) any member of the Committee and the employee (or the companion) may question the Investigator and any witness; and
f) the employee (or companion) will have the opportunity to sum up. The Chairman will provide the employee with the Committee's decision with reasons, in writing, within five working days of the meeting. The Chairman will also notify the employee of the right to appeal the decision. The disciplinary meeting may be adjourned to allow matters that were raised during the meeting to be further investigated by the Committee.

Disciplinary action

11.1 If the Staffing, Finance & Policy Committee decides that there should be disciplinary action, it may be any of the following:

i. First written warning

If the employee's conduct has fallen beneath acceptable standards, a first written warning will be issued. A first written warning will set out:

- the reason for the written warning, the improvement required (if appropriate) and the time period for improvement

- that further misconduct/failure to improve will result in more serious disciplinary action
- the employee's right of appeal
- that a note confirming the written warning will be placed on the employee's personnel file, that a copy will be provided to the employee and that the warning will remain in force for a specified period of time (e.g. 12 months).

ii. Final written warning

If the offence is sufficiently serious, or if there is further misconduct or a failure to improve sufficiently during the period of a prior warning, the employee will be given a final written warning.

A final written warning will set out:

- the reason for the final written warning, the improvement required (if appropriate) and the time period for improvement
- that further misconduct/failure to improve will result in more serious disciplinary action up to and including dismissal
- the employee's right of appeal
- that a note confirming the final written warning will be placed on the employee's personnel file, that a copy will be provided to the employee and that the warning will remain in force for a specified period of time (e.g. 12 months).

iii. Dismissal

The Council may dismiss:

- for gross misconduct;
- if there is no improvement within the specified time period, in the conduct which has been the subject of a final written warning; or
- if another instance of misconduct has occurred and a final written warning has already been issued and remains in force.
- The Council will consider very carefully a decision to dismiss. If an employee is dismissed, he/she will receive a written statement of the reasons for his/her dismissal, the date on which the employment will end and details of his/her right of appeal. If it is decided to take no disciplinary action, no record of the matter will be retained on the employee's personnel file. Action taken as a result of the disciplinary meeting will remain in force unless it is modified as a result of an appeal.

The appeal

12.1 An employee who is the subject of disciplinary action will be notified of the right of appeal. His/her written notice of appeal must be received by the Council within five working days of the employee receiving written notice of the disciplinary action and must specify the grounds for appeal. The grounds for appeal include:

- a failure by the Council to follow its disciplinary policy;
- b) the Committee's disciplinary decision was not supported by the evidence;
- c) the disciplinary action was too severe in the circumstances of the case; and
- d) new evidence has come to light since the disciplinary meeting.

12.2 Where possible, the appeal will be heard by a panel of at least three members of the Council who have not previously been involved in the case. This includes the Investigator. The appeal panel will appoint a Chairman from one of its members.
The employee will be notified, in writing, within 10 working days of receipt of the notice of appeal of the time, date and place of the appeal meeting. The employee will be advised that he/she may be accompanied by a companion - a workplace colleague, a trade union representative, or a trade union official.

12.3 At the appeal meeting, the Chairman will:

- introduce the panel members to the employee;
- explain the purpose of the meeting, which is to hear the employee's reasons for appealing against the disciplinary decision; and
- explain the action that the appeal panel may take.

12.4 The employee (or companion) will be asked to explain the grounds for appeal.
The Chairman will inform the employee that he/she will receive the decision and the panel's reasons, in writing, usually within five working days of the appeal hearing. The appeal panel may decide to uphold the disciplinary decision of the Staffing, Finance & Policy Committee, substitute a less serious sanction or decide that no disciplinary action is necessary. If it decides to take no disciplinary action, no record of the matter will be retained on the employee's personnel file. If an appeal against dismissal is upheld, the employee will be paid in full for the period from the date of dismissal and continuity of service will be preserved. The appeal panel's decision is final.

Training

13.1 Appropriate training will be given to the Parish Clerk or any members who might be involved in disciplinary or appeals meetings to ensure they fulfil their responsibilities under this procedure.

GRIEVANCE POLICY

INTRODUCTION

1. This policy is based on and complies with the 2015 ACAS Code of Practice https://www.acas.org.uk/acas-code-of-practice-on-disciplinary-and-grievance-procedures
   It aims to encourage and maintain good relationships between the Council and its employees by treating grievances seriously and resolving them as quickly as possible. It sets out the arrangements for employees to raise their concerns, problems or complaints about their employment with the Council. The policy will be applied fairly, consistently and in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.

2. Many problems can be raised and settled during the course of everyday working relationships. Employees should aim to settle most grievances informally with their line manager.

3. This policy confirms:

   - employees have the right to be accompanied or represented at a grievance meeting or appeal by a trade union representative or work colleague. The companion will be permitted to address the grievance/appeal meetings, to present the employee's case for his /her grievance/appeal and to confer with the employee. The companion cannot answer questions put to the employee, address the meeting against the employee's wishes or prevent the employee from explaining his/her case
   - the Council will give employees reasonable notice of the date of the grievance/appeal meetings. Employees and their companions must make all reasonable efforts to attend. If the employee's companion is not available for the proposed date of the meeting, the employee can request a postponement and can propose an alternative date that is within five working days of the original meeting date.
   - any changes to specified time limits must be agreed by the employee and the Council
   - an employee has the right to appeal against the decision about his/her grievance. The appeal decision is final
   - information about an employee's grievance will be restricted to those involved in the grievance process. A record of the reason for the grievance, its outcome and action taken is confidential to the employee. The employee's grievance records will be held by the Council in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

- recordings of the proceedings at any stage of the grievance procedure are prohibited, unless agreed as a reasonable adjustment that takes account of an employee's medical condition
- if an employee who is already subject to a disciplinary process raises a grievance, the grievance will normally be heard after completion of the disciplinary procedure
- if a grievance is not upheld, no disciplinary action will be taken against an employee if he/she raised the grievance in good faith
- the Council may consider mediation at any stage of the grievance procedure where appropriate, (for example where there have been communication breakdowns or allegations of bullying or harassment). Mediation is a dispute resolution process which requires the Council's and the employee's consent.

INFORMAL GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

4. The Council and its employees benefit if grievances are resolved informally and as quickly as possible. As soon as a problem arises, the employee should raise it with his/her manager to see if an informal solution is possible. Both should try to resolve the matter at this stage. If the employee does not want to discuss the grievance with his/her manager (for example, because it concerns the manager), the employee should contact the chairman of the Staffing, Finance & Policy committee or, if appropriate, another member of the Committee.

FORMAL GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

5. If it is not possible to resolve the grievance informally, the employee may submit a formal grievance. It should be submitted in writing to the chairman of the Staffing, Finance & Policy Committee.

6. Staffing, Finance & Policy Committee will appoint a sub-committee of three members to investigate the grievance. The sub-committee will appoint a chairman from one of its members. No councillor with direct involvement in the matter shall be appointed to the sub-committee.

Investigation

7. The sub-committee will investigate the matter before the grievance meeting which may include interviewing others (e.g., employees, councillors or members of the public).

Notification

8. Within 10 working days of the Council receiving the employee's grievance, the employee will be asked, in writing, to attend a grievance meeting. The sub-committee's letter will include the following:
   - the names of its chairman and other members
   - a summary of the employee's grievance based on his/her written submission
   - the date, time and place for the meeting. The employee will be given reasonable notice of the meeting which will be within 25 working days of when the council received the grievance
   - the employee's right to be accompanied by a trade union representative or work colleague
   - a copy of the Council's grievance policy
   - confirmation that, if necessary, witnesses may attend on the employee's behalf and that the employee should provide the names of his/her witnesses at least five working days before the meeting
   - confirmation that the employee will provide the Council with any supporting evidence at least five working days before the meeting.

The grievance meeting

9. At the grievance meeting:
   - the Chairman will introduce the members of the sub-committee to the employee
   - the employee (or companion) will set out the grievance and present the evidence.
   - the Chairman will ask the employee what action does he/she wants the council to take
   - any member of the sub-committee and the employee (or the companion) may question any witness
   - the employee (or companion) will have the opportunity to sum up the case
   - the Chairman will provide the employee with the sub-committee's decision, in writing, within five working days of the meeting. The letter will notify the employee of the action, if any, that the council will take and of the employee's right to appeal
   - a grievance meeting may be adjourned to allow matters that were raised during the meeting to be investigated by the sub-committee.

The appeal

10. If an employee decides that his/her grievance has not been satisfactorily resolved by the sub-committee, he/she may submit a written appeal to the Staffing, Finance & Policy Committee. An appeal must be received by the Council within five working days of the employee receiving the sub-committee's decision and must specify the grounds of appeal.

11. Appeals may be raised on a number of grounds, eg:
    - a failure by the Council to follow its grievance policy
    - the decision was not supported by the evidence
    - the action proposed by the sub-committee was inadequate/inappropriate
    - new evidence has come to light since the grievance meeting.

12. The Appeal will be heard by a panel of three members of the Staffing, Finance & Policy Committee who have not previously been involved in the case. There may be insufficient members of this committee who have not previously been involved, if so, the appeal panel will be a committee of three council members who may include members of the Staffing, Finance & Policy Committee. The appeal panel will appoint a Chairman from one of its members.

13. The employee will be notified, in writing, within 10 working days of receipt of the appeal of the time, date and place of the appeal meeting. The meeting will take place within 25 working days of the council's receipt of the appeal. The employee will be advised that he/she may be accompanied by a trade union representative or work colleague.

14. At the appeal meeting, the Chairman will:
    - introduce the panel members to the employee
    - explain the purpose of the meeting, which is to hear the employee's reasons for appealing against the decision of the staffing sub-committee
    - explain the action that the appeal panel may take.

15. The employee (or his/her companion) will be asked to explain the grounds of his/her appeal.

16. The Chairman will inform the employee that he/she will receive the decision and the panel's reasons, in writing, within five working days of the appeal meeting.

17. The appeal panel may decide to uphold the decision of the Staffing, Finance & Policy Committee or substitute its own decision.

18. The decision of the appeal panel is final.
